APPENDIX 1

Roles of the Office Bearers of the Parents and Friends' Association

The President

The President shall preside (act as Chairperson) at all general and Executive Committee Meetings of the Association.

In addition to that responsibility the President shall undertake a number of other tasks such as:-

- Provide leadership and direction for the Association
- Act as the Associations representative and spokesperson
- Supervise the office bearers
- Ensuring adequate and efficient communication exists between the –
 - Members of the Association
 - Association
 - School Board
 - Parish Council
 - Parent, Principal and staff of the School.
- Encourage parents and others to participate in the activities of the Association and the School
- Actively pursues a collaborative working relationship with the Principal and the Parish Priest
- develops positive working relationships with other office bearers and members of the Association
- Ensure all governance responsibilities are met, including the P&F's constitution

The Vice-President

The Vice- President shall endeavour to:

- Provide support to the President and act as Chair all General and Executive Meetings of the P&F Association should the President be unavailable.
- Become familiar with the operation of the P&F and duties of the President, including a working knowledge of meeting rules and procedures.
- Encourage parents and others to participate in the activities of the Association and the school
- Follow the P&F's constitution
- Vice-Presidents should offer to act as convenor for any sub-committees established by the Executive and to undertake other tasks to reduce the burden of the President

The Secretary

Generally, as Constitution states "the Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Association, shall have custody of its documents, and shall keep full and correct minutes of its proceedings".

A secretary also has a responsibility to ensure that all appropriate items are presented to members for discussion and to act upon any decision as directed by the members.

MINUTES

The minutes of the meeting should be concise, expressing only facts of the meeting (and not the writer's opinions). It is recommended that all decisions requiring action by the Secretary be dealt with as soon as possible after the meeting and that copies of any correspondence be retained in a file for future reference.

It is recommended that, regardless of the presence or absence of ex-officio representation from the Parish Council, a copy of the minutes from every P&F Association meeting should be forwarded promptly to the Parish Office.

In addition to taking minutes at each meeting, the secretary shall:

- Record attendance and apologies
- Publish minutes as soon as possible after each meeting
- Maintain an action sheet to keep record of actions arising at each meeting.

THE AGENDA

An agenda should be prepared in collaboration with the President and distributed two weeks prior to the meeting, and, if possible, distributed along with the minutes of the previous meeting via email to members.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Secretary should decide which correspondence needs to be brought to the attention of the members and which should be tabled. Letters and documents from the Parents and Friends Federation of WA Inc., Catholic Education Commission, Education Department and any other relevant body or individual should be read out in full to the meeting. However, if a document is considered to be too long, a summary of its contents will suffice.

All outward written correspondence shall be listed, with a brief description as appropriate.

All Correspondence shall be filed accordingly (electronic into the OneDrive account or hard copy) and forward to members as appropriate.

The Treasurer

The Honorary Treasurer is a person appointed by the members to be responsible for ALL funds received and expended by the Association. There may be sub-committees and sub-groups, each with a treasurer, but the person elected by the general membership of the Parents and Friends' Association as the Association's Honorary Treasurer is the person ultimately responsible for all funds. This isn't as frightening as it may sound but is nevertheless something that should be remembered by everyone in the Association.

It is strongly recommended that the Treasurer obtain a National Police Certificate and has some financial experience.

The Treasurer's Duties are:

- leading the committee each year in developing a budget and reserve allocations, and monitoring the budget throughout the year,
- maintaining an accurate and up-to-date set of accounts - It is important that all books of account are kept right up to date and that entries are legible. If a mistake occurs, don't blot it out, simply put one line through it and write the entry above or below—auditors don't mind errors so long as they can see what happened.
- supporting any auditing or review processes, to be conducted prior to the AGM. Through subsidiarity, this is a parent group-based decision in consultation with the Principal. The process is clearly documented in the Constitution.
- being responsible for the receipt of all monies received by the Association (a good process to follow when counting monies after an event / fundraiser is to ensure two people are present),
- to ensure that ALL monies received are paid into the bank account
- having access to bank accounts or documentation that confirms incoming and outgoing transactions from the parent group,
- to ensure all petty cash is accounted for
- presenting financial reports as directed by the President or requested by the Principal,
- presenting a Statement of Receipts and Payments to the AGM,
- being a signatory to the bank accounts,
- liaising with other Office Bearer's and the school bursar or business manager, and
- submitting an annual Information Statement (AIS) if you are registered with ACNC. You can submit your charity's AIS online through the Charity Portal (charity.acnc.gov.au). This is the simplest way to complete your Annual Information Statement, as many of the answers will be pre-filled for you. This is best done in consultation with the Secretary.
- Cheques and EFTs require at least two (2) signatures; again this is for the Treasurer's protection. No signatures should be placed on a cheque until the details of the payee and amount have been entered.

APPENDIX 2

Standing Orders for P&F

1. The time limit for the mover of a motion to speak shall be three minutes, and for the seconder two minutes.
2. Subsequent speakers, who shall alternate against and for the motion, may have two minutes each and the mover two minutes for a right of reply prior to the vote.

4. All speakers shall address the Chair and confine their comments to the subject under debate.
5. The mover of an amendment to a motion may not have the right of reply unless the amended motion is voted in to replace the original motion. The mover of the amendment then has a right of reply until the new motion is replaced by another amended motion.
6. Statement of a point of order, the asking of a question or supplying an answer to a question asked, through the Chair, shall not be taken as exercising a right of reply.
7. Speakers rising to state a point of order or to ask for a ruling shall confine themselves to a simple statement of the point.
8. When the Chair is called upon to make a ruling, that ruling is final unless challenged via a motion of dissent. This motion, if seconded, shall be put to the meeting immediately following a short explanation by the mover and a right of reply by the Chair, who shall vacate the Chair during this debate.
9. Motions shall be decided upon the voices or a show of hands unless a division or a secret ballot is required by a motion approved by the meeting.
10. The Chair may have a deliberative vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, also a casting vote, which should not be used to alter the status quo.
11. The Chair may only move, second or speak to a motion after vacating the Chair.
12. A member acting contrary to the standing orders shall obey a call to order by the Chair or may be required to leave the meeting.
13. Standing Orders may be suspended to allow free discussion on an issue. A formal motion needs to be put and carried to allow this action.
14. Association meetings normally shall be restricted to one and a half hours, except that a majority of those present may agree to a procedural motion to extend the meeting by up to half an hour.

APPENDIX 4

What are the restrictions on matters which can be discussed at Parents and Friends' Association meetings?

It is inappropriate for a general meeting to discuss individual parent/child issues; these should be a matter for discussion between the individual parent and the Principal/teacher.

In addition, it should be remembered that an Association is precluded from exercising authority over the teaching staff or interfering with the control or management of the school.

These are the only restrictions, which leaves it open for members to discuss general education, safety, health issues; matters which affect the staffing of schools general; and matters which have a bearing on the welfare of the children as well as a whole range of local, state or national issues which arise from time to time.

Association meetings are held to conduct the business of the Association and to provide a forum for parents to discuss the education of their children, and members should be encouraged to embark on wider issue discussions.

APPENDIX 5

The importance of "Handover"

School parent associations run on the goodwill of volunteers. This, together with preset terms of office and the nature of school life, means that there will always be turnover in the membership and executive of the association.

To ensure that your good work and contribution is continued after you leave, it is really important to establish and carry out a good handover process for your respective successor. This benefits them and allows you to pass on your experience and knowledge.

Here are some tips to keep in mind which will make handover easier when the time comes:

- set up a file in which to keep all the documents relating to your role. It's often useful for the next person to be able to see what has gone before to give them an idea of how to go forward.
- Complete an event summary form (available from the Secretary) after each event you coordinate. Make a note of what was ordered, what it cost, how many people participated and what could have been done better.
- Keep track of Keys, Account Codes or passwords for photocopying, email or One Drive Access.

Each outgoing Office Bearer is to provide a detailed handover to the new member, within one week of the Office Bearer's election. Some documents you may want to include in your handover besides those directly relating to your role may be:

- Letter of appointment or welcome
- Duties and responsibilities of Office bearers and other positions
- Code of Conduct (if there is one)
- Meeting schedule for the year
- Calendar of scheduled events
- The Constitution
- Minutes of the last AGM
- Minutes of the most recent general meeting and any sub-committee meetings (where applicable)
